

Thriving in the Outdoors: Social and Emotional Development in Nature

Join us for a day of hands-on learning, networking, and fun!

Sunday, February 23, 2020 | 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

NatureBridge's Golden Gate Campus, Sausalito, CA

$15 for AEOE members, $30 for non-members (option to add membership w/ registration), lunch included

This workshop is for:

Program managers and directors seeking to improve organizational culture and better support staff in delivering impactful programs

Instructors wanting to improve their practice and learn how to develop young people's social & emotional skills

Youth development professionals who are interested in using natural settings to enhance their programming

Register by February 16—space is limited and you must pre-register:

aee.org/events

Offered by AEOE through a partnership between NatureBridge, the Student Conservation Association, and Outward Bound USA, with generous support from the S. D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation.

