OUTDOOR EDUCATION INTERNSHIP Cuyamaca Outdoor School – 2021-22 School Year

The San Diego County Office of Education is seeking individuals to join our team as Outdoor Education Intern for the 2021-22 season at the original 6th Grade Camp, Cuyamaca Outdoor School. The residential outdoor education program, in operation since 1946, is located an hour east of San Diego in the 25,000-acre Cuyamaca Rancho State Park, elevation 4,000 feet. We connect children to science through nature in a weeklong, hands-on outdoor education experience. Our interns are outgoing, hard-working, energetic, and have a genuine desire to make a positive difference in children's lives.

The position places a strong emphasis on environmental education.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of natural and environmental sciences
- Works effectively with students and adults in small and large group settings
- Experience working in a residential outdoor education or recreation program with school-age children
- Has a passion for teaching in and about the natural world
- Demonstrates a positive attitude, adaptable personality, strong work ethic, and likes to have fun
- Completion of college-level course work in natural sciences or other related topics

Position Details

September 1, 2021 start date; $14.00 starting hourly rate, plus free room and board, and more; This is a six-month position with potential for full year employment and a raise to $20.94 per hour.
